Uniqueness Principle for Fractional Polyharmonic Operators and Applications to Inverse Problems

Catharine Wing Kwan LO

Department of Mathematics, City University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong SAR, P. R. China

Email: wingkclo@cityu.edu.hk

We are concerned with inverse problems involving poly-fractional operators, where the poly-fractional operator involves multiple anisotropic fractional Laplacians of different orders. We will discuss the physical significance of such operators, give novel results for their unique continuation properties, and consider the corresponding inverse problems.