

Abstract Template for oral/poster presentation at IAS Asia Pacific Workshop on Condensed Matter Physics – 12pt, Bold, Centered, CALIBRI

(Talk #: to be completed by the Organizer)

FirstName LastName¹, FirstName LastName^{2,3*} (12pt, centered, bold, CALIBRI)

¹Department, Full name of the institution, Country

²affiliation format, 11pt Bold Centered, font type CALIBRI

³Department, Full name of the institution, Country

Email of Presenting Author: abc@abc.edu.au (11pt, bold, centered, CALIBRI)

We would like to present our latest findings on the followings [1]. Abstract template is available in two formats: Microsoft Word (.doc/.docx) and PDF (.pdf). Please submit your abstract in either one of the above formats. Abstract prepared in other formats may be rejected [2]. You should follow the guidelines below when preparing your abstract: (1) Paper size: A4; (2) Side Margin = 1", Top & bottom margin = 1"; (3) Font type = CALIBRI, 12 pt, Abstract body is single-lined, Justified; (4) Insert figure (if any) after abstract body, followed by Figure Caption (see below for an example); (5) References (if any) should be placed after figures with proper citation format (see below for examples).

Figure 1. Optional. (a) Please ensure the inserted figure(s) have sufficient resolution for printing purpose. (b) 12pt, Justified, CALIBRI.

References:

[1] Citation format, 12pt and CALIBRI, J. Cond. Mat. Phys. XX 1234 (2012).

[2] A. Fang, Th. Koschny, M. Wegener and C. M. Soukoulis, Phys. Rev. B. 79 241104(R) (2009).